2020-21 Jean Barman Award (#2005)

AWARD CRITERIA:

Prizes totaling $1,000 are offered annually to students of Indigenous ancestry pursuing graduate or teacher education degrees based on a project related to Indigenous people. The award is named in honour of Dr. Jean Barman, an outstanding professor who taught and works in this area. The award is made on the recommendation of the Faculty of Education in consultation with the Associate Dean of Indigenous Education and the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies. The award will be given in recognition of a graduate student based on: (1) the quality of his or her academic achievement and scholarship in the field of Indigenous education; and (2) the degree to which that scholarly work has informed or has the potential to have a positive impact on improving Canadian Indigenous education
